The Class of 1950

The eighth of September—yes, that was the day
We returned to our desks in the usual way.
But yet it was different when classtime drew near,
For now we were starting our very last year.
Yes, at last we were seniors. 'Twas now we who led,
And down in the lunch room we're first to be fed.
We had big things to do now and plans to be made.
We elected our leaders and sponsors to aid.
With Jessie as president, Alfred as veep,
Bill Stott we elected, our money to keep.
These, Gloria wrote down in her class minutes book
With nobody minding the classtime it took.
Our plans for New York were excitedly begun
As everyone discussed the privileges we'd won.
And then in November our class was to see
Lane's very first Homecoming ever to be.
Our drives to raise money—we'll never forget them—
They'd have driven us mad, if only we'd let them.
We sold magazines, Christmas wrappings, and cards;
Our boys played the faculty forwards and guards.
We had our card parties; we sold pies and cakes,
And rummage and tickets—what patience it takes!
The last day of March, ah that was the day
We rang down the curtain on our own Senior play!
"Mother Is A Freshman"—at last it was done.
It was lots of hard work, but even more fun.
The last week in April—our trip to New York!
Most seniors agreed it was worth all the work.
And then came commencement (for all those who passed)
The banquet, the dances, diplomas—at last!

In the fall everyone was talking about Lane's first Homecoming—the pep rally Thursday, the big game Friday, and how pretty Gloria Galban looked when she was crowned Homecoming Queen at the dance Saturday night. For a week before, bright orange and black posters decked the walls, and the whole student body seemed to be running over with school spirit. The credit for this successful, gala event is given to the Student Council for its efforts in promoting it.

The Interclub Council, another new idea which sprang from our Council members this year, was probably the most hotly discussed issue of the year. It was proposed in order to create good will among the various clubs and thereby throughout the entire school. Many of the clubs set to work writing constitutions so they would be eligible for membership. Yes, this was one of the most active councils we have had for years.

Ushers Club

Want to be an Usher? Apply for the job! Anyone is eligible to apply for the job, and from the applicants a certain number are approved. The applicants must have a C average grade, or above; they must have a satisfactory or an excellent on conduct; and they must fill out applications which are then approved or rejected by the Student Council.

The students that make up the Ushers Club are always striving to maintain order at all times throughout the school. Keeping the halls as quiet as possible, keeping the lunch room clean and orderly, ushering at public performances—these are just a few of the duties of the ushers.

Girls' Activities Council

At the beginning of the new school year, the eighth-graders were given a warm welcome by the G.A.C. The girls guided them in their first few days of school and entertained them with a party. The repainting and redecorating of Room 112 this year was sponsored by the G.A.C. At Christmas time the Council decorated the room in holiday spirit and had Santa Claus on hand to greet the guests. These were two of the various activities of the Girls' Activities Council.

On February 27 the G.A.C. held an anniversary meeting at which the new officers were installed. Marguerite Gianniny, who has capably served as chairman of the Council for two consecutive years, was presented a gift by the Council members as a token of their appreciation of her excellent work.

"Get busy!" "This has got to be finished by December!" "Where's the ruler?" "Can't you do those write-ups any faster?" "You know that picture is too small for this page!"

These were familiar words to the CHAIN staff as they prepared the 1950 annual in Room 206. Many a worry the staff had trying to keep its expenses down and to get its work in by the dead-line.

Ah, but don't think there was nothing but work, for the CHAIN members certainly had their share of fun. For their campaign to sell more annuals, the staff had a gay old time writing slogans and splattering paint right and left on posters. A friendly argument is nothing unusual to the CHAIN. What a hard time it was deciding the color of the annual's cover, especially when some of the CHAIN members were partial to green instead of blue.

Now that the 1950 CHAIN is completed, the staff can truly say they've enjoyed preparing the annual for you and hope it meets your approval.

WHO? The reporters, typists, copy readers, photographers, and proofreaders of the Lanetime.

WHEN? Every day of the week, every week of the session.

WHERE? In the Lanetime staff room.

WHAT? Scouting for news scoops, collecting interesting gossip, gathering information for student write-ups, writing and rewriting stories, taking pictures, writing informative and humorous features, recounting highlights of sports news, expressing the students' opinions in editorials, proofreading typewritten copy, racing to meet the dead-line.

HOW? By working faithfully on a never-ending job.

WHY? So the students of Lane High School may receive entertaining school news.

And thus, by telling this in true newspaper technique, we give you an account of the work of the Lanetime staff.

Bumblebee

The staff would like to take the opportunity to announce that the Bumblebee is a literary magazine, not a sorority. The picture on this page may be misleading. This is the first time that the staff has ever been composed entirely of girls.

The Bumblebee, published twice a year, is composed of stories, poems, essays, and other creative writings produced by Lane students.

Heading the staff is Cornelia Blincoe, with Margery Darling as poetry editor, and Alice Crittenden as art editor. Others on the staff include Judy Waddell, Jule Murray, Ann Anderson, and Mikell Currier, editorial staff; and Frances Gillum and Adele Marshall, typists. Dr. R. A. Meade serves as sponsor.

Business Staff of Publications

Are you a super salesman with a pleasing personality? Are you a determined soul that never gives up or gets discouraged? Do you have the never-ending patience of a saint? Do you enjoy walking from store to store in an attempt to sell people something that they don't want? If so, you should join the business staff of the publications and go mad with the rest of us. You can have the pleasure of being told, "Mr. ———— isn't in just now," after seeing him dart quickly out of the back to avoid being asked if he would like to advertise in the Lane High School publications. You too can fill out little blue and white slips and collect money to support the Lanetime, the CHAIN, and the Bumblebee. For the experience of a lifetime you shouldn't miss serving a term on the publications' business staff.

The "C" Club consists of boys who have won their varsity letter in one of the major sports at Lane this year. The first project of the club was the writing of a new constitution. On December 21 the club gave its annual Christmas dance, which was as successful as ever.

As usual the initiations of new members created quite a sensation. For three days, coming from sympathetic onlookers we heard such remarks as these: "Look at those poor boys." "I like your new hair-do, Billy." "Do you always walk to classes backwards?"

This year the Girls' Senior Hi-Y had the president of the District Conference elected from their group. The election of Ferrel Keane to this position was in itself quite an accomplishment, but this was not the only activity in which the Hi-Y took part. In their regular Monday night meetings they planned such projects as organizing new Hi-Y groups in surrounding schools and playing Santa Claus to an underprivileged family.

In the spring the Hi-Y took part in the Youth and Government program which is held each year in Richmond, and planned a picnic and dance for its members. The group also gave a tea for its members, the Reverend Bruce Wideman, whom they elected visiting minister and advisor, and Mrs. W. Y. Darling, Mrs. Dan O. Via, and Mrs. Shelton Barr, their other advisors.

Mr. G. C. Speidel

"How much do you Care?" This question greeted Lane students at the beginning of the Hi-Y's annual CARE package drive, which was only one of the Hi-Y's projects in carrying out the Hi-Y creed. Another project netted over three hundred Swan soap wrappers, which were converted into one hundred and fifty bars of soap badly needed by the unfortunate people of Europe.

The annual banquet for the members of the Hi-Y and their dates was held again this year at the Albemarle Hotel. At this festive occasion Mr. Speidel, the sponsor, inducted the new officers for next year and awarded the jeweled pin to the member of the Boys' Senior Hi-Y selected by his fellow club members for best typifying the high ideals and standards of the Hi-Y. During this year this coveted award was worn by Alfred Matacia.

At the District Conference held in Front Royal, Norman Kidd, after a spirited campaign, was elected president of the Senate for the Model General Assembly held annually in Richmond.

Standing: N. Kidd, J. B. Morris, S. Nichols, R. Graves, E. Cash, A. Matacia, G. Whetzel, J. Faris.

Sitting: W. Plunkett, J. Speidel, C. Jackson, J. Mayo, L. Huffman, G. Scouras, B. Faris, C. Goddin, Mr. Speidel.

Girls' Junior Hi-Y

Who formed a Gra-Y for the seventh graders at Lane this year? Who took the children at the Colored Nursery under wing by giving them lollipops at Halloween, toys at Christmas, and an egg hunt at Easter? Who gave a Valentine party for the children at the Children's Home? The Girls' Junior Hi-Y did! This club, a junior organization of the Girls' Senior Hi-Y, is an energetic group of freshmen and sophomore girls whose many activities include helping others.

Eighth Row: Miss Butt (Sponsor), A. Matthews, M. L. Sparger, A. Burnet (Secretary).
Seventh Row: M. A. Mahanes (Vice-President), J. Smith, J. Hutton (Treasurer).
Sixth Row: N. Hughes, A. Hughes, H. Bruffey, R. Case.
Fifth Row: A. Clough, J. Dugan, L. Lambert, N. Craven.
Fourth Row: G. Gordon, B. Gay, D. Halstead, S. Davis.
Third Row: E. Dickerman, S. Johnson, S. Payne, R. Scouras.
Second Row: E. Omohundro, M. Currier, E. McLaughlin (President).
First Row: A. Crittenden, S. Stephens, H. Moore, J. Durham, F. Sauder.

Boys' Junior Hi-Y

The officers elected to lead the Boys' Junior Hi-Y for this year were Frank Hague, president; Billy Speidel, vice-president; and Larry Coleman, secretary-treasurer. The members are made up of boys from the Eighth Grade, Freshman, and Sophomore Classes.

One of the main activities of the Club was the Overseas Clothing Drive, conducted in cooperation with the work of Church World Service. The Club also participated in the CARE Drive.

The Boys' Junior Hi-Y was well represented at the District Conference at Front Royal in the spring.

Third Row: D. Lawson, B. Speidel.

Second Row: Mr. Speidel (Sponsor), H. Bruton, F. Hague, L. Coleman, F. Bonavita, C. Luck, W. Paine.

First Row: R. Curtis, D. Ault, D. Phillips, B. Rodgers, H. Sadler.

Eighth Grade Hi-Y

Another Hi-Y? Yes, and this time it's the youngest in the school. Although the members are young, they are still busy and active workers. First of all, these girls helped a family whose home had been burned. They assisted the Girls' Junior Hi-Y in sending toys to the Colored Nursery.

Mimi Breeden was club president with Fern Wells as vice-president, Barbara Pittman as secretary, and Shirley Head as treasurer.

The Club joined with the other Hi-Y Clubs in attending church in a group and in participating in the District Conference at Front Royal.

Second Row: Miss Butt (Sponsor), B. Pittman, M. Irby, B. Goodwin, P. Jameson, A. Hurst, S. Bibb, M. Pace, S. Head, F. Wells, K. Lipes.
First Row: D. Wood, T. Dixon, P. Flynt, B. Jenkins, E. Proffitt, M. Breeden, P. Bellomy.

Distributive Education Club

Third Row: R. Taylor, L. Plumb, E. Harvey, F. Mawyer, B. Tilman, R. Eary, K. Staples.

Second Row: C. Garrison, W. Jackson, G. Thomas, E. Spencer, D. Proffitt, L. Dorrier, Mrs. Miller (Sponsor).

First Row: G. Coffey, V. Cox, K. Murray, F. Melton, N. Kirby, G. Millholland, C. Blincoe.

Not in Picture: J. Dorrier, B. Maupin.

The Distributive Education Club is made up of a group of students who are interested in training themselves for jobs in various fields of retailing. The course, offered to qualified juniors and seniors, requires fifteen hours of school training each week with a minimum of fifteen hours of work training.

The Area Conference was held at Lane this year. Kitty Murray was sent to Richmond to represent Lane at a conference of the Distributors' Clubs of Virginia.

The officers elected by the club this year were Kitty Murray, president; John Dorrier, vice-president; Nancy Kirby, secretary; and "Cracker" Harvey, treasurer. Mrs. Audrey Miller has done an excellent job as sponsor of the club.

That big noise which came from the auditorium last fall was the talking and tooting of the Lane High Band in its first session. Soon the band members were seen marching up and down the athletic field on frosty mornings preparing maneuvers and music for the football season. The next big events on the band's calendar were the Fall and Christmas Concerts.

The band certainly rates a gold star for the assembly program it gave in January. Robert Snoddy, the student conductor, deserves most of the credit for the success of this program which the band members themselves prepared and presented in Mr. Hoose's absence.

This year the band celebrated its tenth anniversary with a Spring Concert that was really something special. With the concert in Fairfax, the City Music Festival, and the District and State Contests the band ended its first ten years.

Science Club

On Thursday afternoons, if we happen to be passing Miss Duke's room after school, we might hear a group of young scientists discussing such things as white rats, photography, taxidermy, electric-eyes, chemistry themes, the Science Talent Search exam, explosives, pneumonoultramicroscopicsilicovolcanokoniosis (remember that!), or a trip to the observatory.

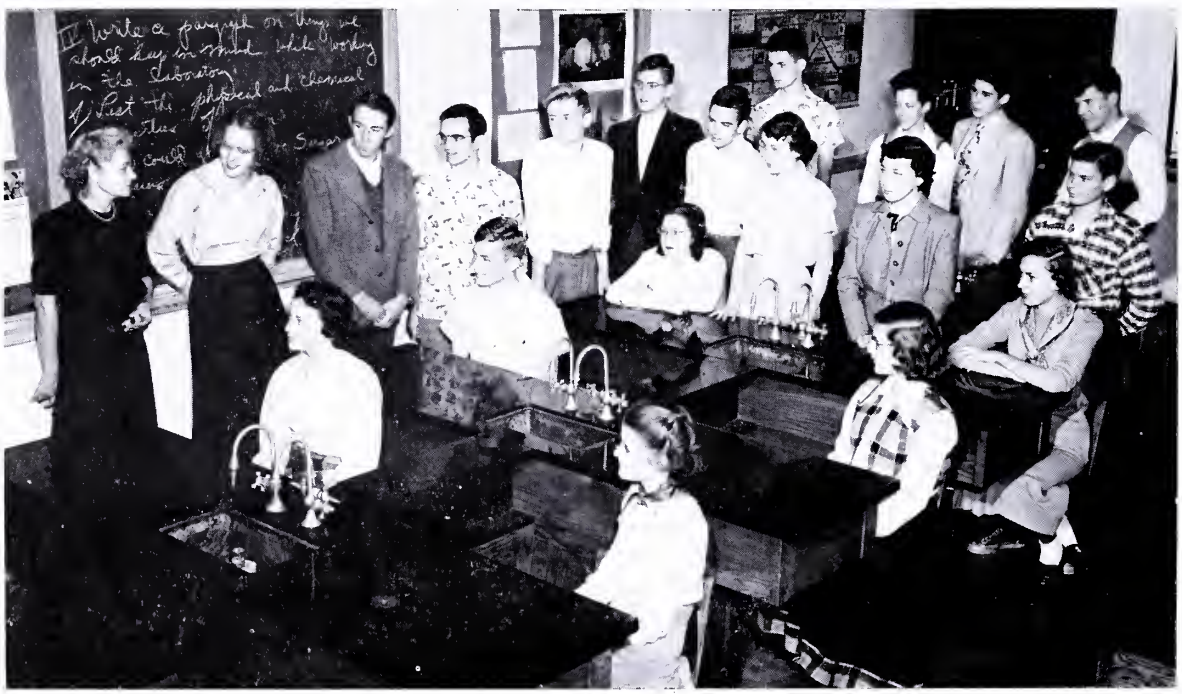
For the first time in years the science students of Lane have organized an active Science Club. With the wonderful help of Miss Duke as sponsor they elected Mary Elizabeth Armstrong, president; Wilmer Paine, vice-president; and Nancy Jo Craven, secretary-treasurer; and then proceeded to set up a constitution and plan group and individual projects. Club meetings were made more interesting by guest speakers who came to discuss various scientific activities with them.

We'll be expecting some Einsteins to emerge from 220 someday; so here's luck to the new Science Club. Keep up the hard work!

Third Row: (Standing) Miss Duke (Sponsor), N. J. Craven, W. Shisler, H. Sadler, L. Coleman, D. Miller, R. Holsinger, J. Speidel, E. Dickerman, G. Whetzel, H. Bryant, A. Matacia, R. Makielski, R. Curtis.

Second Row: (Seated) L. Hunt, W. Paine, B. Hart.

First Row: (Seated) A. Crittenden, N. Hughes, M. Armstrong.



Key Club

The Key Club had a very successful year under the leadership of Norman Kidd, president; Alfred Matacia, vice-president; Wayne Plunkett, secretary; and George Scouras, treasurer.

The club undertook a number of worthwhile projects this year. Posters for the cafeteria were made by Key Club members to remind students to place waste paper in the proper places. On February 11 the club sponsored a "Valentine" dance. A third project was the installing of the pay phone at Lane.

The Key Club was host to an organization meeting of the Capital District of the Key Club International. This included clubs from Virginia, Delaware, Maryland, and the District of Columbia.

First Row: B. Faris, A. Matacia, R. W. Wallenborn, J. Root, G. Whetzel, G. Scouras, W. Plunkett, J. Faris.

Players Club

This year the Players Club took a deep breath and embarked on an entirely different program for taking in new members. A point system was worked out whereby not only students with dramatic ability but also those interested in doing backstage work may become members of the club. This meant work for prospective members, but then, work never hurt anyone—much.

Club members got pins this year, too—another new development. The pins are triangular in shape with the typical masks of drama on either side.

The club members worked hard on the annual play, "Quality Street." Of course, everyone was always right on time, and no one laughed, talked, or joked around during practice. Betty Johnston, Eleanor Dickerman, and Robert Snoddy gave excellent performances in the leading roles, and with the help of the other club members, turned out a play which the whole student body could be proud of.

Fifth Row: J. Dillard, N. Pace, E. Dickerman, A. Anderson, B. Martin, J. Murray, M. Darling, Miss Horwitz (Sponsor), Miss Bolen (Sponsor), V. Carr, B. Staples, C. Ault.

Mixed Choir

Do, re, mi, fa, and so we are tuned up ready to start our daily rehearsal.

"All right, sit with your backs away from the chairs." "Get rid of that chewing gum immediately." These comments mark a typical choir period.

"What, rehearsal every day and on Tuesday and Thursday nights?" Of course, this refers to practices for The Pirates of Penzance. Even though there was an occasional gripe, everybody truly loved the operetta and enjoyed working on it to make it a great success.

Tommy Keith, secretary-treasurer, has written the last minutes and turned the lock to the 1949-1950 Choir Diary, with happy memories of the Christmas Concert, assembly programs, and the District Festival. Hats off, we say, to Robert Makielski, president; Betty Branham, vice-president; Joyce Apgar and Marguerite Gianniny, librarians; and all the choir members.

Third Row: C. Long, H. Birckhead, L. Bruton, W. Paine, B. Barr, L. Drumheller, R. Graves, J. Angel, B. Robertson, R. Craft, T. Keith, B. Tilman, J. Anderson, R. Hudson, R. Makielski, S. Makielski, V. Walton.

Second Row: D. Johnson, G. Fisher, A. Crittenden, B. Staples, B. Wells, L. Hunt, D. Staples, J. Ryan, P. Haynes, S. Davis, E. Morris, J. Apgar, C. Leake, R. Thompson, H. Hall, R. Mincer.

First Row: Mrs. Westerman (Director), P. Goodwin, D. Watts, J. Waddell, B. Makaritis, B. Byrd, F. Gillum, M. Darling, F. Keane, J. Smith, B. Branham, P. Hibbert, M. Gianniny, B. Davenport, C. Goodrich.

Modern Choir

Girls! Girls! Girls! That is what the newly organized Modern Choir is composed of. Because there was such a large turnout of girls in the vocal department this year, the Modern Choir was organized to accommodate all of them and to prevent an unbalanced mixed choir.

This group of girls has really shown what it could do with semi-classical music by its performance in the Christmas vocal concert. The group sang various selections from the Nutcracker Suite.

As its first officers the Modern Choir chose Pat Hibbert as president and Betty Makaritis as secretary-treasurer.

Third Row: P. Goodwin, C. Leake, R. Thompson, E. Knight, S. Davis, E. Morris, A. Clough, G. Houchens, B. Ennis, J. Davis, E. Byars, A. Sargeant, M. Powell, J. Taylor, E. Hackett.

Second Row: M. Buckles (Accompanist), A. Crittenden, B. Wells, J. Apgar, L. Hunt, D. Staples, J. Ryan, B. Davenport, C. Goodrich, A. Pearson, J. Wharton, D. Stultz, C. Morris.

First Row: P. Hibbert, M. Gianniny, F. Gillum, B. Makaritis, B. Byrd, D. Watts, J. Smith, M. Darling, N. Moses, B. Sprouse, L. Roberts, S. Durham.

Not in Picture: J. Glancy, J. Shaw.

Glee Club

Our Glee Club may be called the cradle of the Choir, for in this club singers receive their basic training for the later more serious work in the Choir.

Many adjectives may be borrowed from Mr. Webster's dictionary to describe the personality of the director, Mrs. Westerman. But it is enough to say that she rates "tops" with everyone.

Perhaps the Glee Club's most important public appearance was its participation in the annual Christmas Concert. Everyone enjoyed its performance of such carols as Christmas Bells, Gisu Bambino, and White Christmas. Along with the other two vocal groups the Glee Club helped make this an event to be proud of.

Third Row: D. Woody, B. Martin, C. Heidloff, J. Adams, P. Jones, B. Barlow, C. Hood.

Second Row: J. Shifflett, C. Smith, B. Easton, B. Goodwin, P. Wilson, D. Geldard, J. Edwards, A. Hurst, S. Bibb, A. Jones, E. Proffitt.

Willis Hughes

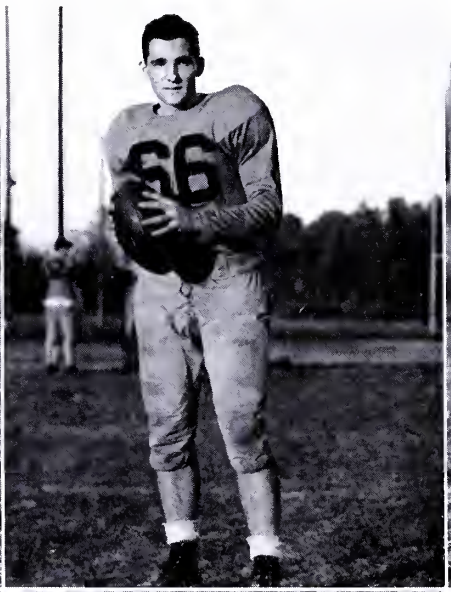
. . . 152-pound junior center, has shown his ability as a center for the past two years. He has demonstrated his readiness as a linebacker, and this year he played that role. He also plays an excellent game on offense. He has received his letter both years.

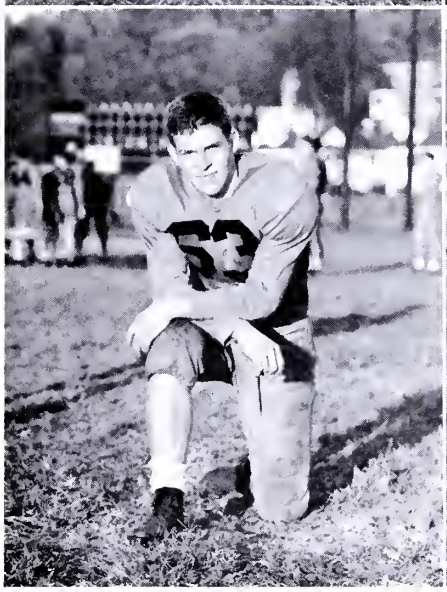
Bill Adams

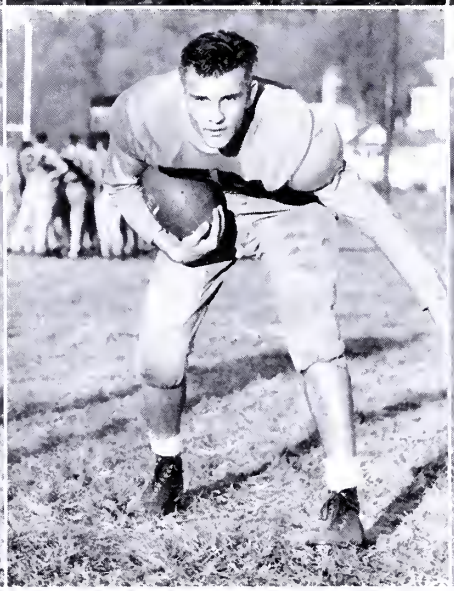
. . . 173-pound senior, has been with the varsity squad for four years and in that time has earned the position of quarterback. He is a hard runner, a good passer, and an excellent punter. He gained 90 yards rushing, 933 yards punting, and scored 23 points.

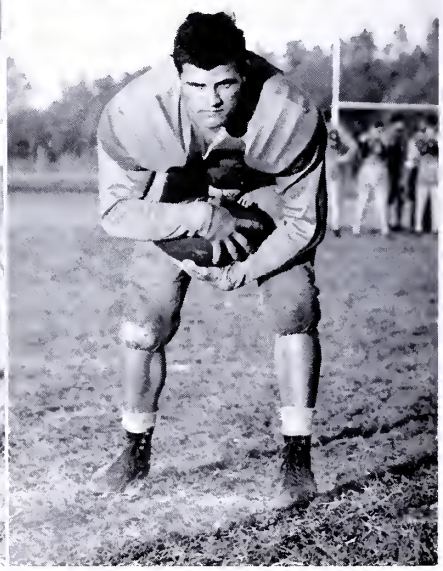
Ray Marshall

. . . a bulldogging 165-pound junior, has played guard for two years and this year took immediate possession of all rights of left guard. He is very fast and aggressive on the defense and a hard blocker on the offense. Both years he has won his letter.









Norman Kidd

. . . senior, came out for the varsity squad three years ago. In spite of having been injured, he played excellent ball this year. He is a 170-pound guard who can block and tackle from either guard position. This year he became a letterman.

Sonny Nichols

. . . 167-pound senior who came from Danville two years ago, took over the fullback position this year. He gained 373 yards rushing and scored 6 times. He gained 80 yards passing and threw 1 touchdown pass. He won his letter both years.

Joe Bingler

. . . senior, is a 180-pound pile-driving ball carrier and a standout on the defense. Running from the right halfback slot, he gained 451 yards and scored 39 points this year. He was picked for the All-Northern Team and first team All-State.

Billy Scruggs

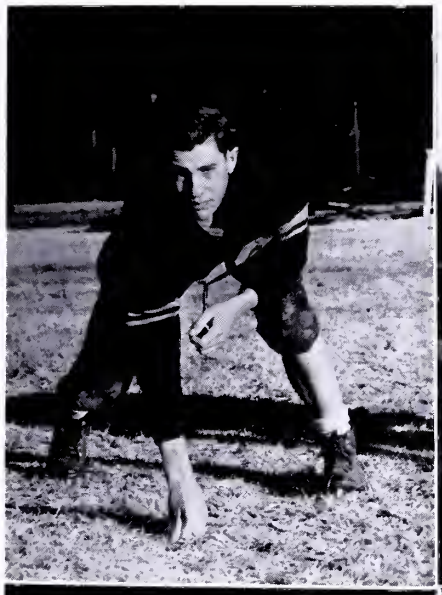
. . . senior, who last year played guard, was this year moved to the end position. He is a 165-pounder who has proved himself a smart and aggressive defensive anchor and a fine pass receiver. He has been a letterman for two years.

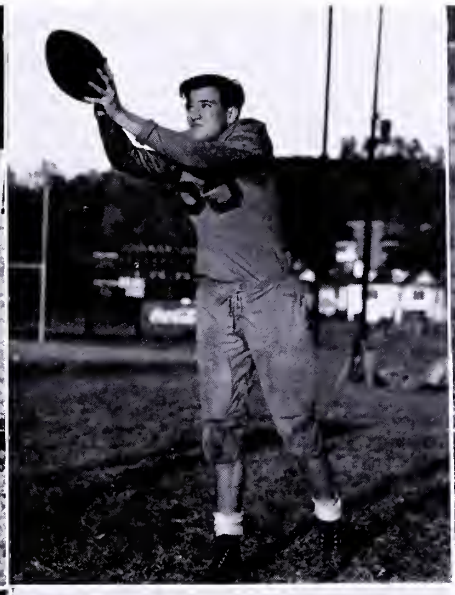
Bunny Deane

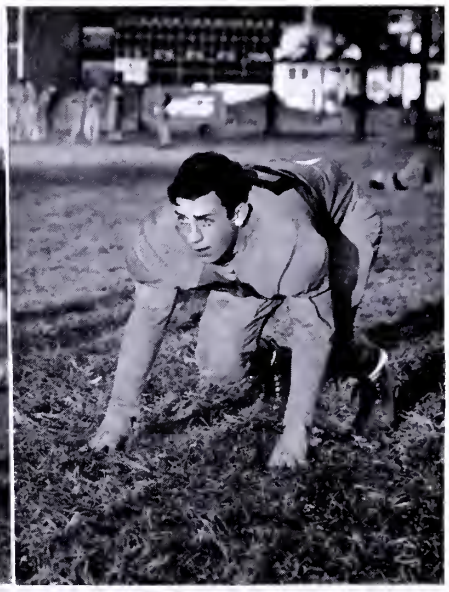
. . . a small but dangerous sophomore, received his letter this year and was mentioned on the All-Northern Team. He is the smallest man on the team, but is good on both offense and defense. He is a 146-pounder who goes after passes from the right end position.

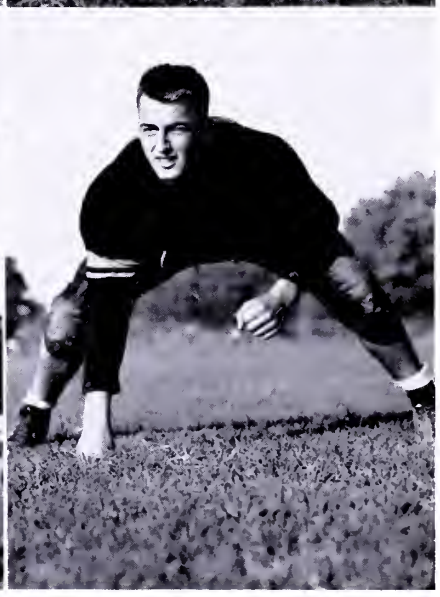
Randy Barnett

. . . 165-pound senior, is a three-year line veteran, experienced and able. He returned to guard this year and had a wonderful season. On offense he is quick, and on defense he is very aggressive. This year he was picked for the All-Northern Team.









George Spencer

. . . a 202-pound veteran, is a stable line fixture at right tackle. He has been out for the varsity for three years, filled the tackle slot two years, and won his letter twice. This year he made the All-Northern Team plus first team All-State.

Wheat Wallenborn

. . . 160-pound senior scatback, was outstanding on the offense this year. He led the backs in rushing with 517 yards and scored 6 touchdowns. He has operated from the left halfback position for three years, and was placed on the All-Northern Team this year.

Bob Thraves

. . . a new member of the varsity squad, this year moved into the lineup. He is a 170-pound sophomore who holds down the left tackle position. He is a very fast and rough defensive player. He is now a member of the "C" Club.

Junior Varsity Football

Fourth Row: R. Turner (Coach), E. Barnett (Coach), W. Mawyer, H. Hall, J. Francisco, E. Jackson, F. Powell, S. Fowler, F. Johnson (Manager).

Cheerleaders

M. Todd, M. J. Via, N. Jenkins, B. Barr, P. Hibbert, P. Harris, G. Morris, B. Patterson, N. Pace

This year our cheerleaders were seen boosting school spirit at the football games both at Lane and on trips. They gave us some very special pep assemblies, and by the way they led the crowds at the basketball games and other events, made the home teams feel the support of the whole student body. There has been better school spirit at Lane this year than there has been in a long time. Much of the credit for this should go to the Varsity Cheerleaders and those up-and-coming J.V.'s.

Jim Lewis

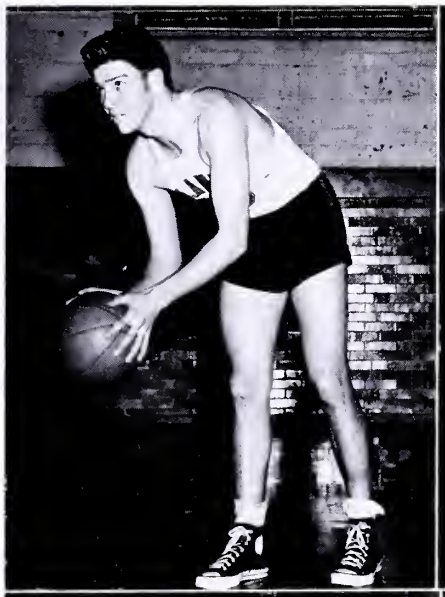
. . . a one-handed push shot artist, this senior guard completed 3 years of varsity play this season. Lettering all three times, Jim has been an outstanding defensive player. Participating in all 15 games on the schedule, Lewis played the entire time quite often.

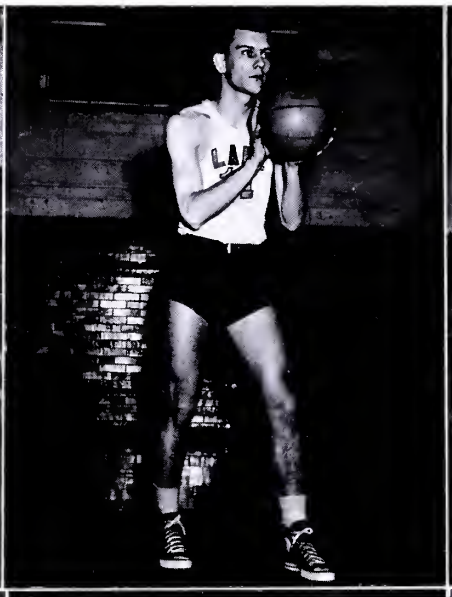
Sonny Nichols

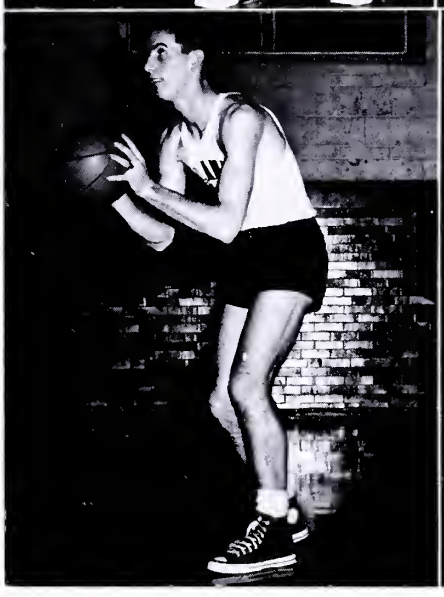
. . . second year on the varsity basketball squad. A 6′ 1″ senior, Sonny alternated between center and forward this season. This football and baseball star proved his worth on the court by scoring 49 field goals and 33 free throws.

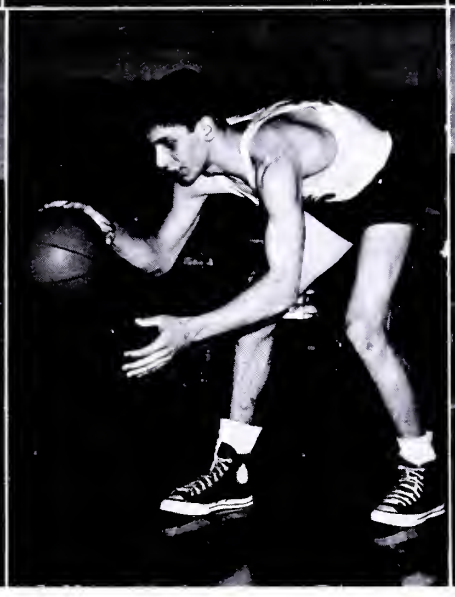
Ray Samuels

. . . a junior playing his first varsity season, he earned his letter for fine floor play and for his accurate shooting. Playing from either the forward or center positions, Ray bucketed 120 points during a 15-game schedule.









Bill Shipp

. . . a junior playing his first season as a varsity regular. His defensive play was excellent and his ball handling was a deciding factor in the success of Lane's floor game. Although he was not a consistent scorer, he made up for this defect by his fine court play. His point total was 28.

Tommy Theodose

. . . this was his second season as a star forward of the Lane quint. Only a sophomore, Tommy was an immediate star in his freshman year. Being 5′ 9″, he is the shortest man on the hoop squad but also he was the leading scorer with 180 points.

Eddie Wyant

. . . playing his first year of basketball this year, Eddie was a substitute guard and proved a decided help in defense. A senior, Wyant is an ace hurler on the diamond squad. Relatively short at 5′ 9″, he bucketed 13 points during the season.

(1) Big moment!! . . . (2) Ray comes down the stretch . . . (3) Good shot . . . (4) He flies through the air with the greatest of ease, eh Doug? . . . (5) Is it really that bad, Ryland? . . . (6) What do you see up there?
